WILL – FUTURE

NOTE: As you progress in learning each of the topics developed you will find exercises to solve with the help of your teacher.

PRESENT PROGRESSIVE

The present progressive puts emphasis on the course or duration of an action.

The present progressive is used for actions going on in the moment of speaking and for actions taking place only for a short period of time. It is also used to express development and actions that are arranged for the near future.

PRESENT PROGRESSIVE – FORM

Use a form of to be and the infinite verb plus -ing.

Use:

- am with the personal pronoun I.
- is with the personal pronouns he, she or it (or the singular form of nouns).
- are with the personal pronouns you, we, they (or the plural form of nouns).

	affirmative	negative	question
I	I am playing.	I am not playing.	Am I playing?
he, she, it	He is playing.	He is not playing.	Is he playing?
you, we, they	You are playing.	You are not playing.	Are you playing?

TIPS ON HOW TO FORM NEGATIVE SENTENCES AND QUESTIONS

In negative sentences, we put not between the form of be and the verb.

In questions, we simply swap the places of subject and the form of be.

EXERCISE ON FORM. Complete the table with the correct forms.

	affirmative	negative	question
I	I am working.	_____	_____
you	You are jumping.	_____	_____
he	_____	He is not dreaming.	_____
she	_____	_____	Is she sleeping?
it	It is snowing.	_____	_____
we	_____	_____	Are we singing?
you	_____	You are not fighting.	_____
they	_____	_____	Are they reading?

8. we / to listen to the radio

PRESENT PROGRESSIVE – EXCEPTIONS IN SPELLING

A single, silent e at the end of the word is dropped before ing.

example: come – coming

I am coming home. You are coming home. He is coming home.

But: ee at the end of the word is not changed example: agree – agreeing

The final consonant after a short, stressed vowel is doubled before ing.

example: sit – sitting

I am sitting on the sofa. You are sitting on the sofa. He is sitting on the sofa.

The letter l as final consonant after a vowel is always doubled before ing.

example: travel – travelling

I am travelling around. You are travelling around. He is travelling around.

Mind: This applies only for British English; in American English there is usually only one l.

An ie at the end of a word becomes y before ing.

example: lie – lying

I am lying in bed. You are lying in bed. He is lying in bed.

USED TO

FORM

[used to + VERB]

Example:

I used to go to the beach every day.

It is better not to use "used to" in questions or negative forms; however, this is sometimes done in informal spoken English. It is better to ask questions and create negative sentences using Simple Past.

USE 1 Habit in the Past

Used to" expresses the idea that something was an old habit that stopped in the past. It indicates that something was often repeated in the past, but it is not usually done now.

Examples:

- ✓ Jerry used to study English.
- ✓ Sam and Mary used to go to Mexico in the summer.
- ✓ I used to start work at 9 o'clock.
- ✓ Christine used to eat meat, but now she is a vegetarian.

USE 2 Past Facts and Generalizations

"Used to" can also be used to talk about past facts or generalizations which are no longer true.

Examples:

- ✓ I used to live in Paris.
- ✓ Sarah used to be fat, but now she is thin.
- ✓ George used to be the best student in class, but now Lena is the best.
- ✓ Oranges used to cost very little in Florida, but now they are quite expensive.

"USED TO" VS SIMPLE PAST

Both Simple Past and "Used to" can be used to describe past habits, past facts and past generalizations; however, "used to" is preferred when emphasizing these forms of past repetition in positive sentences. On the other hand, when asking questions or making negative sentences, Simple Past is preferred.

Examples:

- ✓ You used to play the piano.
- ✓ Did you play the piano when you were young?
- ✓ You did not play the piano when you were young.

ACTIVE / PASSIVE

Examples:

- ✓ Jerry used to pay the bills. Active
- ✓ The bills used to be paid by Jerry. Passive

- ✓ Time clause: the present simple is used.

Example:

She will look for a job when she graduates.
He's going to get a job when he graduates.

The "clause of time" can begin before the prayer.

Example:

Before she asks, she will visit the school

OR

She will visit the school before she asks.

Common expressions of time to construct sentences in the future.

When, then, not until and as soon as

A) When disclosing events that occur first

Example:

When I graduate, I will look for a job.

I'll get a job after graduation.

I will not look for work until I graduate.

As soon as I graduate, I will look for a job.

B) Before, until, at the moment, for the moment, to give the event of events occurring in the second term.

Example:

Before I get a job, I will finish school.

I'll stay at school until I get a job.

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

FORM

[has/have + past participle]

Examples:

- You have seen that movie many times.
- Have you seen that movie many times?
- You have not seen that movie many times.

USE 1 Unspecified Time Before Now

We use the Present Perfect to say that an action happened at an unspecified time before now. The exact time is not important. You CANNOT use the Present Perfect with specific time expressions such as: yesterday, one year ago, last week, when I was a child, when I lived in Japan, at that moment, that day, one day, etc. We CAN use the Present Perfect with unspecific expressions such as: ever, never, once, many times, several times, before, so far, already, yet, etc.

Examples:

- I have seen that movie twenty times.
- I think I have met him once before.
- There have been many earthquakes in California.
- People have traveled to the Moon.
- People have not traveled to Mars.
- Have you read the book yet?
- Nobody has ever climbed that mountain.

A: Has there ever been a war in the United States?

B: Yes, there has been a war in the United States.

How Do You Actually Use the Present Perfect?

The concept of "unspecified time" can be very confusing to English learners. It is best to associate Present Perfect with the following topics:

TOPIC 1 Experience

You can use the Present Perfect to describe your experience. It is like saying, "I have the experience of..." You can also use this tense to say that you have never had a certain experience. The Present Perfect is NOT used to describe a specific event.

Examples:

- I have been to France.
This sentence means that you have had the experience of being in France. Maybe you have been there once, or several times.
 - I have been to France three times.
You can add the number of times at the end of the sentence.
 - I have never been to France.
This sentence means that you have not had the experience of going to France.
 - I think I have seen that movie before.
 - He has never traveled by train.
 - Joan has studied two foreign languages.
- A: Have you ever met him?
B: No, I have not met him.

TOPIC 2 Change Over Time

We often use the Present Perfect to talk about change that has happened over a period of time.

Examples:

- You have grown since the last time I saw you.
- The government has become more interested in arts education.
- Japanese has become one of the most popular courses at the university since the Asian studies program was established.
- My English has really improved since I moved to Australia.

TOPIC 3 Accomplishments

We often use the Present Perfect to list the accomplishments of individuals and humanity. You cannot mention a specific time.

Examples:

- Man has walked on the Moon.
- Our son has learned how to read.
- Doctors have cured many deadly diseases.
- Scientists have split the atom.

TOPIC 4 An Uncompleted Action You Are Expecting

We often use the Present Perfect to say that an action which we expected has not happened. Using the Present Perfect suggests that we are still waiting for the action to happen.

Examples:

- James has not finished his homework yet.
- Susan hasn't mastered Japanese, but she can communicate.
- Bill has still not arrived.
- The rain hasn't stopped.

TOPIC 5 Multiple Actions at Different Times

We also use the Present Perfect to talk about several different actions which have occurred in the past at different times. Present Perfect suggests the process is not complete and more actions are possible.

Examples:

- The army has attacked that city five times.
- I have had four quizzes and five tests so far this semester.
- We have had many major problems while working on this project.
- She has talked to several specialists about her problem, but nobody knows why she is sick.

We haven't seen him since his birthday.
We haven't played soccer since May.

FOR

We use 'for' to talk about a period of time continuing up to the present. It is used with length of time (e.g. four years, two months, etc.)

One way to form this tense is: "will" + the simple present tense form of the verb. We use "will" when the subject is volunteering to do something in the future or deciding to do something in the future while speaking.

Example: We (clean) will clean on Tuesday. (We just decided to clean.) Example: (drive) Will you drive on Sunday? (A decision about driving is being made.)
